GOLDMAN BRYSON'S MOUNTED COMPANY

Bryson's Scouts and Guides

National Guards, 1st Regiment, Company A

This company, composed of men from Cherokee County, N.C., and Monroe County, Tenn., has never been officially recognized as a military unit in the service of the United States. Although a claim was made that they were mustered into service September 29, 1863, the claim was declared invalid. On November 3, 1863, the company was routed, never to again unite as a company. Some of the men, sympathetic to the Union cause, enlisted in various regiments, some went home, while others turned to guerrilla activities.
